

Fikri Işık

Federal Minister for Science, Industry and Technology, Republic of Turkey

CV

Born on 13 September 1965 in Gümüşhane; married, four children

Education

Bachelor's Degree from the Department of Mathematics Education,
Faculty of Education of the Middle East Technical University

Vocational Activities

Served as a mathematics and English teacher at various national educational institutes

Worked as a manager in food industry

Political Career

2001 - 2003

Became member of the AKP's Provincial Organization in the province of Kocaeli's executive board as well as its Deputy Chairman responsible for R&D issues

2003 - 2007

Became the Head of AKP's Provincial Organization in Kocaeli.
Elected as the Kocaeli Deputy of the AKP in the 23rd and 24th terms.

2007 – 2013

Served as the Regional Coordinator and Deputy Chairman of the AKP Central Organization

2013

Elected as the Head of the Commission for National Education, Culture, Youth and Sports of the Turkish Grand National Assembly and served for one year at this post

Since December 2013

Federal Minister for Science, Industry and Technology

Memberships

- The Alumni Association of the Middle East Technical University, Education
- Culture and Fraternal Association of Hereke
- Turkish Red Crescent Society
- Green Crescent Society
- Ay Işıđı Fraternal Association for the Poor and the Orphaned
- The Association of Gümüşhane Citizens at Kocaeli